HELPING CLIENTS MOVE BEYOND TRAUMA – CHERYL SHEA

GROUP WORK MOVING BEYOND TRAUMA – SANDRA MADDEN

WORKSHOP SPEAKERS:

CHERYL SHEA

Cheryl Shea, RPC, MPCC
Cheryl has spent 20 years of pastoral and professional counselling work focused, in some capacity, with survivors of trauma. Cheryl is an RPC, MPCC with the CPCA and holds a Master of Divinity degree (Taylor Seminary) and a B.Sc. (University of Winnipeg). She is currently working towards certification as a Clinical Traumatologist (Traumatology Institute)

Sandra Madden

Sandra has spent over 30 years facilitating many different groups ranging from women's groups focused on emotional freedom, youth groups building identity and most recently working with men charged with domestic violence. In each genre, she has witnessed how groups are highly effective in fostering a sense of community, combatting shame and isolation, building a healthy support network, and encouraging personal growth and accountability. Sandra currently works as a Family and Domestic Violence counsellor at a not for profit agency in AB, and in her private practice in Calgary, AB.
